COMMUNICATED.

In Memory of Gen. Lee. MEETING IN WESTMORELAND COUNTY, VA. A meeting of the citizens of Westmoreland county was held at Montross, on Thursday, the 20th instant, for the purpose of expressing their sense of the great loss sustained by the country in the death of Gen. Robert E. Lec. On motion of W. W. Walker, Esq., Judge George W. Lewis was called to the chair, and Dector John C. Mayo appointed secretary.

After a statement of the object of the meeting by the chair, elequent and impressive addresses were delivered by Hon. Willoughby Newton, General R. L. T. Beale, and William W. Walker, Esq.

On motion, the chair appointed General R. 1. T. Beale, Hon. W. Newton, W. W. Walker, Esq., and Colonel Joseph Mayo, a committee to express and present in suitable form the feelings of the people of Westmoreland, the native county of General Lee, upon the sail event of his death.

This committee, through Colonel Joseph Mayo, to whom the duty of its preparation was entrusted, presented the following memo-

Devoutly bending under the chastening rod of the all-wise and good Ruler of the Universe, we desire to unite with our friends and countrymen throughout Virginia and the South in making known, as well as is possible for human speech to embody the feelings of the human heart, our sense of the bereavement we have sustained in the death of General Robert E. Lee, and in paying to the memory of the illustrious dead the unmeasured tribute of our gratitude, reverence and love. And whilst we recognize with becoming pride the fact that the fame and character of our beloved chieftain are the joint heritage of all mankind; whilst we behold with unfeigned gratification the solemn and impressive demonstrations which attest the value the Southern people have placed upon the acts and services of the mest idustrious defender of our righteous cause, and whilst we lend our voices to swell the mighty dirge which to Virginia was he, the noblest, most loving, dutiful and devoted of all her children, it is peculiarly meet and proper for us on this occasion to express the pride and pleasure we experience from the reflection that to our dear old country belongs the country to the following specialties:

OLD DOMINION TONIC BITTERS, for Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Weakness and Debility.

As a Tonic, Alterative and Diurctic they stand unequalled, and are a sure preventive of Ague and Fever and all Bilious Diseases. Our un proclaims to all the world how inexpressibly dear General Robert E. Lee, and that it has for that reason a double claim to be oberished among the most renowned and hallowed spots of earth. Washington and Lee, sons of Westmoreland, names which, at no distant day, will be inseparably linked together in the imperishable annals of human greatness and glory. The fame of the lormer is now securely fixed for all future garded by the people of the South, as the perfeet model of a Christian hero, patriot and sage, and the equal and peer of George Washington in all the qualities which go to make up the full statue of manhood's most consummate glory and excellence. His was the upright deed, His the unswerving course time. In every language which is spoken by civilized man history has recorded his panegyric as "the world's great paragou—the cyno-sure of his race." To the same august tribuoal we commit the reputation of Robert E. Lee, in the perfect confidence that its judgment will justify the estimation in which he is to day re-

The hely truth walked ever by his side And in his bosom dwelt, companion, judge and guide.

Unchanged by venal aim or flattery's hollow

Mid every thwarting current's force,

But when disease revealed To his unclouded eye The stern destroyer standing nigh, Where turned he for a shield? Wrapt he the robe of stainless reclitude Around his breast to meet cold Jordan's flood Grasped he the staff of pride, His stops through death's dark vale to guide

Ah, no! self-righteousness he cast aside, Clasping with firm and fearless faith the cross of Him who died. Serene, serene,

He pressed the crumbling verge of this terrestial scene. Breathed soft, in childlike trust. The parting grean, Gave back to dust its aust, To heaven its own. To the family of the deceased we tender our sirecrest sympathy and condolence. The bitterness of our own grief, the sadness of our own bereavement, admonish us how intense must be the affliction of those, who having the exalted privilege of knowing him in the purity and loveliness of his private domestic life, ex perience a sorrow over his less which the world cannot know.

On motion, the Secretary of the meeting was directed to forward a copy of these proceedings to the family of General Lee, and a copy also to the Memorial Association of Lexington. GEORGE W. LEWIS, Chairman,

John C. Mayo, Secretary.

A LL ABSENT AND DELINQUENT A members of the Alexandria Catholic Beneficial Society are hereby notified that the new constitution has been adopted, and that they are required to come ferward and sign the same and pay up all arrearages within the next thirty days; and those who fail to comply with the requirements of this notice w thin the time mentioned, shall no longer to considered as

A Perfectly Clear Preparation, in One Bottle, as Easily Applied as Water, for Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color and Youthful Appearance, to Eradicate and Prevent Dandruff, to Promote the Growth of the Hair, and Stop its Falling. arations now in use. It is warranted to contain no Lead, Nitrate of Silver or Sulphur, consequently it is perfectly free from all the objections so justly urged against the muddy and sulphurous compounds. In everything in which the articles now in use are objectionable Crystal Discovery is perfect. Clear and clean as water, it does not soil the clothes or scalp, is agreeably perfumed, and makes one of the best dressings for the hair in use. It restores the color of the hair more per fect and uniformly than any other preparation, and always does so in from three to ten days.

Virtually feeding the roots of the hair with all the nourishing qualities necessary to its growth and healthy condition, it restores the decayed, and induces a new growth of the hair more positively than anything else. The application of this wonderful discovery also produces a pleasant and cooling effect on the scalp, and gives harsh, wiry and brash hair a glossy and legant appearance. Especial attention is called to the fact that it will positively give entire satisfaction in every case. Our aim is not to induce you to buy a single bottle, but to have you use it constantly. For sale by druggists and fancy dealers generally. Liberal discounts to dealers.

To whom all orders must be addressed,
The following is inserted as a specimen of the many recommendations sent us:

Washington, August 15, 1870. Mr. Arthur Nattans-Dear Fir: Some time ince I bought a bottle of Crystal Discovery on your own recommendation, and after a thorough trial am glad to say it has accomplished even morethan you claimed. It is as clear and easy of application as water, resembling none of the dirty preparations in use. My hair, which was quite gray, has assumed its natural color after a few applications, and I cheerfully recommend its use to all needing anything of the kind, as also the cheapest article ever containing a stamp to offered. Very respectfully, out 5 James Hall, 10th and E ats
